NSPCC Assembly and Workshops – Dame Esther Rantzen Guest Visit

On Thursday 20th July the NSPCC will be coming into school to deliver the Speak Out and Stay Safe programme in a whole school assembly - you will receive a letter detailing the topics covered in your child's book bag. The NSPCC have informed us that Dame Esther Rantzen, founder of ChildLine, will be attending the assembly in the morning which is being delivered to the KS1 children – due to Dame Esther being a high profile figure there will be several media outlets in attendance. There is likely to be a television crew, radio broadcasters and photographers from the local press and news. All children in KS1 will be attending the assembly and those children already identified as having restricted image consent will not be filmed, photographed or identified in anyway. If you have any concerns or would like to update your image consent forms please see the school office immediately. Thank you.

KS2 Inter-House Matches

On Monday all the children from Key Stage 2 took part in the inter-house football, netball and basketball matches. The children worked well in their teams, supporting and encouraging each other. Well done to all the teams for your fantastic sportsmanship and determination.

Gym Showcase

Well done to the gymnasts from Mrs Batchelor's gym club, who performed to parents after school. There was a lovely selection of floor routines and routines using apparatus such as vault and beam.

Nut Free Policy

May we politely remind parents that Wellow School has a nut free policy for snacks and lunch – we have several children in school with severe nut allergies and kindly request that all parents carefully check the products they are providing for their child's snack and lunch boxes, particularly items containing hazelnut chocolate spread and items such as bakewell cakes. We would also like to remind parents that Wellow is a Healthy Eating School and your child's snack should include healthy options for example fruit or vegetables. Thank you for your support.

Congratulations to Jemima and Erin in Year 4

On Saturday last week Jemima and Erin took part in the Schools Diving Competition at the Quays in Southampton. They did really well securing medals for 6th place in each of their groups. Well done girls!
