Wellow Summer Reading Challenge

Dear Parents,

Following on from our assembly today, the children will have brought home a Summer Reading Challenge to take part in over the summer holidays.

This year we would like the children to read a variety of different texts that are not necessarily a book, for example, a comic, a leaflet, a noticeboard and a recipe.

Further to this and to make the challenge more interesting and fun, the children are encouraged to read each text in a variety of ways e.g. to a pet, to a cuddly toy or in the bath!

There is also a competition to get caught reading in an unusual place. The most unusual, creative and eye-catching photo will win a prize. To make it simpler for you, we are asking for entries to be sent via email to Miss Dewey (t.dewey@wellow.hants.sch.uk).

I hope the children all enjoy this reading challenge and return to school in September with their completed challenge card. All children that take part will receive a certificate for their participation.

Yours sincerely,

B Larcombe
